

Xisi Guo

Optomed nomination board's proposal: new board member

B. 1982, a PRC citizen

Independent of Optomed and dependent of a major shareholder

Mr. Xisi Guo (BSc, Economics and Business; Master of Business Administration) serves as an executive director of Cenova Capital. He joined Cenova in 2020 with more than 10 years of investment experience in healthcare industry. Prior to Cenova, Xisi was the VP at CICC Jiacheng and a core member of the fund's healthcare investment team. His investments and successful exits included Shanghai MicroPort Endovascular MedTech, Beijing Chemclin Biotech, Distinct HealthCare, SonoScape Medical Corp and Beijing MD Joint Hospital etc. Prior to CICC, he was an associate with Cummins' global M&A team. In his early career, he was a senior associate with Deloitte financial advisory services.

